Board approves installation of new fire hydrant

The Property Owners Association (POA) Board met on Saturday, June 29.

During the meeting, the board approved installation of an additional fire hydrant on Misty Ridge Way. Currently there is one wet fire hydrant just outside of the Pinnacle Falls entrance on Pinnacle Falls Road, another wet hydrant in the Forest area of Pinnacle Falls on Pinnacle Falls Lane, and a dry hydrant in the Pinnacle Falls pond.

ARB Chairman George Rash and Property Manager AJ Ball were asked by the board to research the feasibility of adding additional fire hydrants in the community, particularly in the Meadows area and in the lower region of Pinnacle Falls, which have clusters of homes. Due to having smaller water lines in the lowest and farthest areas of the community near Eagle Ridge Road, and the need to have areas for a fire truck to turn around, a traditional six-inch fire hydrant is not feasible. However, a post flush hydrant, which works specifically for areas with smaller water lines, would work in three different areas of the community that have flush valves.

Since the homes along Eagle Ridge Road do not have a hydrant close by, the board unanimously approved spending the funds to install one post flush hydrant this year on Misty Ridge Way, which is just off of Eagle Ridge Road.

The board will consider installing an additional hydrant in the Meadows area next year; and additional hydrants in other areas as more homes are built.

New home completed in Pinnacle Falls

Greg Meuwissen and Linda Brett recently received the Certificate of Occupancy for their newly completed home on Mountain Maple Road (Lot 58). They expect to begin moving in within the next few weeks.

McMillan's construction gets underway

Construction on Mike and Ellen McMillan's new home on Lot 98 has begun.

Springtime Builders began clearing the lot in the Forest area in mid-June.

Mike and Ellen just retired from teaching in Delray Beach, Florida. They are currently renting a home in the nearby Kenmure development while their home is being built.

Congratulations Mike & Ellen!!

POA Board Election: Don't forget to vote

All property owners should have received their POA annual meeting packets in the mail within the last week. The packets include the voting ballots and candidate bios for the upcoming POA Board election.

If you are unable to attend the Annual Meeting on Saturday, July 20, please be sure to send in your absentee voting ballot to Theresa Ball, of BalRidge Management, as soon as possible. All absentee ballots must be received by July 19.

Two POA Board members are rotating off the board, and we have three candidates to choose from: Carol Fife, Gayden Gauthier, and Grady Nance.

Six jocks take in a day at the ballpark

It was guys' day out at the ballpark on Sunday, June 30. Ralph Johns, George Rash, Mickey Pickler, Ed Graham, Andy Kinigson, and Grady Nance took in the Asheville Tourists game against the Augusta Greenjackets.

Although the Asheville Tourists ended up losing, it was a fun day for all and additional game outings will be planned.

The Asheville Tourists is a minor league baseball team. Games are held at McCormick Field near downtown Asheville Monday through Friday 7:05pm, Saturday 6:05pm, and Sunday 2:05 pm. General admission is $7 and $6.

Upcoming Home Games Schedule: July 1-3, 9-15, 25-31.

Hertwig dogs make final cut in Porch Dogs contest

Ron and Rhonda Hertwig's two golden retrievers, Sam and Adam, were among the top 10 finalists for the Porch Dogs Photo Contest, sponsored by John F. Blair, Publisher.

The contest, which was open to the public for voting, sought portraits of dogs on southern porches. Hendersonville resident Andrea Beeler won first place with a photo of her four golden retrievers. Among the prizes was a signed copy of Nell Dickerson's book, Porch Dogs, which combines fine-art portraits of man's best friend with beautiful architectural documentation of the Southern porch. Congratulations to Sam & Adam on making the top 10!!

Carlsons spot bear

Sam and Adam have inspired us to start our own photo contest. Announcing the PF Gazette's summer "Life is Good" Photo Contest.

Photos may be color or black & white; must be in JPG format, and must include your name and caption with name of subject(s) and location of photo. Only 1 photo per household per category. Deadline: August 20. Winners will receive a "Life is Good" beverage cup or coffee mug, and winning photos will be featured in the September PF Gazette. All Pinnacle Falls property owners may enter. Email submissions to contactynf@gmail.com.

Out & About

Rhythm & Brews is Hendersonville's new downtown concert series

Hendersonville has a new venue for residents to enjoy great music, fine wine, and cold beer. A new concert series, Downtown Rhythm & Brews, started in May and is scheduled for the third Thursday of each month through August.

These free outdoor shows begin at 6pm and are held in the Azalea parking lot between 3rd and 4th Avenues along King Street. In addition to live music from great local bands, the event also features a wine and beer garden showcasing craft brews by Henderson County's own Sierra Nevada and Southern Appalachian Breweries, and wine by local wineries, such as Burnt Shirt, Falderal, and Saint Paul Mountain Vineyards. Each event is family-friendly with a HandsOn! Family Zone with kid-friendly activities, hosted by HandsOn!.

Upcoming concerts include:

July 18: The Lonesome Road Band & Balsam Range

August 15: Eric Congdon & Garry Segal with George Porter Jr.

Jason "Lefty" Williams performed on June 20.

Dairy Day held downtown

Hendersonville residents were treated to free ice cream and a parade of about 30 vintage milk trucks downtown on Saturday, June 29.

After the parade, several of the trucks were displayed to the public as part of the 2013 Midwest Milkman's Reunion and DIVCO (Detroit Industrial Vehicle Company) Club Convention.

DIVCO milk trucks harken back to when fresh dairy products were delivered to residents' doorsteps each week. The trucks are now all privately owned. There are 500 owners who hold bi-annual conventions around the U.S.

New milk delivery service available

A new milk delivery service is now available in Western North Carolina.

Jonathan Flaum, 44, of Asheville, started Farm to Home Milk in January, delivering products such as bottled farm glasses of milk, eggs, bread, meat, poultry, and more, from his refrigerated truck to customers' homes. He picks up the milk on Mondays from Maple View Farm in Chapel Hill, NC, and then makes deliveries throughout the week. Additional products, such as goat milk, eggs, bread, fish, beef, pork, coffee, and more, are provided by companies in Western North Carolina.

Although Farm to Home Milk delivers mostly in the Asheville and northern Hendersonville County area, the company does have drop off locations in other areas of Western North Carolina. Flaum recently expanded his route to Fletcher and plans to have a central drop-off location in Hendersonville.

For more information, visit the company's website at www.farmtohomemilk.com, or call 828-225-1900.
